Seniors Elect Officers

Highland Springs is "coming alive" and the Class of '67 is out to prove it. Traditionally the life of Highland Springs revolves around her senior class and its varied activities.

Sponsors Appointed

Excitement radiates not only from class members but also from this year's class sponsors—Mr. William E. Browne and Mrs. Marian Sorrell.

This is Mr. Browne's fifth consecutive year as senior class sponsor. A graduate of the University of Richmond, he has served Highland Springs for seven years as a teacher of English and speech. Commented Mr. Browne, "This is a class with a lot of potential." On further thought Mr. Browne said, "It is through doing that a class is remembered."

Mrs. Sorrell, a graduate of Otterbein College, is in her seventh year at Highland Springs. She also is an English teacher and has been a class sponsor for five years. Not only is Mrs. Sorrell a class sponsor but she can be found in the IAO office working diligently with senior records and transcripts.

What is Mrs. Sorrell's reaction to the job of class sponsor? "I consider it not a job but a privilege." When asked her hopes for the Class of '67 she replied, "Be true to the best that is in you."

On October 5th the seniors elected their class leaders.

Chapman Leads '67

Serving as president of his class is Steve Chapman. Steve is indeed an active Springer. He is president of both the Key Club and the National Honor Society. In addition he supports the school literary publications by serving as co-editor of the Highlander.

In his junior year Steve was tapped into Beta Club.

Steve commented, "We will use every senior's ability in the best interest of the class. With the cooperation of all we will unify the class and become the best yet!"

Stewart is Vice President

Vice President, Jimmy Stewart, made known his surprise at being elected. Said Jimmy, "I think we'll have a pretty good year if we all work together as a class and not as individuals."

Jimmy is a member of the varsity basketball team and vice president of his homeroom. He is also active in the Hi-Y.

Stanley Records Activities

When it comes to secretarial work the seniors look to Betty Stanley. A member of Beta Club and a princess in the Homecoming Court, Betty is an active Springer.

She is currently president of her homeroom.

Betty remarked, "I'm happy to be secretary and I hope we'll have a really successful year."

She is currently president of her homeroom.

When asked her reaction to the outcome of the elections, Betty replied, "I'm happy to be secretary and I hope we'll have a really successful year."

Connatser Handles Money

Basketball is a big thing for this year's senior class treasurer, Sue Connatser, as she is the captain of the Lassies. Among Sue's many activities are: Art Club secretary, Y-Teens, F.H.A. (president in second period), and chairman of the S.C.A. Assembly Committee.

When asked how it felt to win the election Sue answered, "I was so excited I didn't know what to do. This will be the best year for the senior class of Highland Springs."

Congratulations to . . . Seniors Spook H.S.

Karen Lee Wyland, a sophomore, has been crowned Miss Teen-Age Richmond. On Saturday, October 29, she will leave Richmond en route to Dallas where she will compete for the title of Miss Teen-age America. On behalf of the entire school the Fling sends Karen on her way with wishes that she will return Miss Teen-age America 1967.

Judy Nauman was awarded the top teen award for Miss Congeniality, which was voted on by the twenty-four contestants in the Miss Teen-age Richmond Pageant.

All mortals are hereby warned to avoid the high school area from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m. on Saturday night, October 29th.

Why? Because every spook in the senior class will be here in the school cafeteria decked out in their worst haunting suits to scare up a rocking good party.

The occasion is the traditional Senior Halloween Party. This will be the first activity for the seniors as a class and is strictly a senior function. No outsiders will be admitted and costumes must be worn.

A local band, The Outlaws, will furnish the music. Prizes will be given for the prettiest, ugliest, and funniest costumes.

It is hoped that this will be the first step in establishing esprit de corps among the members of the class of '67.

SPRINGERS, CALL WLEE!

Cheerleaders Say, "Put Down, Panthers!"

Varsity Is Headed By Griggs

by Allyne Verelle

Brenda Griggs, a senior, is head varsity cheerleader, president of her homeroom, a member of the Beta Club, and a member of Y-Teens. When asked about the school spirit this year, she said, "I think the school should support the team whether they win or lose. They'll always be champs if they're Springers." She also commented that she hates to think of leaving Highland Springs this June.

Sue Ann Madison, also a senior, is on the Deb Council at Thalhimers, secretary-treasurer of her homeroom, vice president of F.H.A., a member of the decorations committee, and Crown Bearer of the Homecoming Court. Her comment on Springer Spirit was, "It has been great this year but I hope to see more people at the games supporting their team."

Dorothy Brown, a senior, is a member of Beta Club, secretary of National Honor Society, and program chairman of Y-Teens. Her comments were, "I think cheerleaders are a very important part of the school. They don't get out in front of the crowd just to be seen. They cheer for a purpose, which is to bring out the Springer spirit lead our team on to victory."

Diann Davis, a senior, is a member of the Beta Club, vice-president of her homeroom, SCA decoration committee co-chairman, and Homecoming Court princess. She commented, "When we choose the J.V. cheerleaders, I hope the girls will be interested. The J.V. is what makes the varsity."

Linda Edmonds, also a senior, was Homecoming Queen this year. She is also secretary-treasurer of her homeroom and Hi-Y Sweetheart. Her remarks on Springer spirit were, "I think this year's spirit points to one of the brightest futures that Highland Springs has seen in a long time."

Janet Davidson, a junior, is a member of the Spanish Club, the A-Cappella Choir, and vice-president of her homeroom. Her comments on Springer Spirit were: "The spirit at both pep rallies and games has been tremendous and I hope it continues. Nothing is more pleasing than a crowd that's full of pep and enthusiasm as we Springers have shown. Happiness to me is a bleacher full of screaming Springers yelling and cheering their hearts out in hopes of cheering our team to victory!"

Carol Warren, a junior, is secretary-treasurer of her homeroom, Red Cross representative, a member of the decorations committee and works on the Annual staff. When asked about Springer Spirit, she stated, "The cheerleaders really appreciate all the Springer Spirit shown at the pep rallies and games."

Mary Kay Gorman, also a junior, is president of her homeroom, a member of FTA and FBLA, decorations committee, Spanish Club, and the gymnastic team. Her comments were, "The Spirit is looking better than ever and I hope it continues."

Kay Edgar, a junior, is president of her homeroom and member of the decorations committee and the gymnastic team. She said, "The spirit is great this year and the students seem to be proud to have the name Springers."

Linda Hendricks, also a junior, is a member of the decorations committee and the Annual staff. Her remarks were, "I think the spirit is great this year; I hope the crowd will continue to follow the cheerleaders."

The cheerleaders hope to have their new uniforms for basketball season in time for the Tucker game.

There will continue to be a short pep rally at the end of school every Friday afternoon instead of in the morning.

Cheerleaders (left to right) Mary Kay Gorman, Linda Hendricks, Kay Edgar, Dorothy Brown, Carol Warren, and Janet Davidson jump with enthusiasm as they spiritedly cheer the Springer team on to victory.

Class of '67 Puts Up Doors

All senior homerooms are to have their doors fully decorated in preparation for judging on October 28th, as they will be rated on this day. First place will be five dollars provided by the Key Club who will sponsor this activity.

It is hoped that the Class of '67 will be creative, as well as sensible, in designing the doors.

Wayne Huband Chosen Sweetheart of Y-Teens

The strains of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" greeted Wayne Huband on the night of October 10. He had just been elected Y-Teens Sweetheart and the club members had rushed over to his house to inform him of the outcome of the election.

When asked his reaction he stated,

"I didn't know what to say; I was so surprised!" He also added, "I would like to thank all the members of Y-Teens for electing me their sweetheart."

His other activities include being a member of the varsity basketball team, and an active member in the Hi-Y. He is also co-chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee for the S.C.A.

His duties as Sweetheart this year will be to attend all Y-Teen meetings. He will also accompany the girls on all their other activities.

Are Manners Lax?

If you don't know what you're talking about then it is often wise to keep your mouth shut; however, anyone who has seen Springer manners in action must admit that it is time that something be done to improve our rather disgraceful lack of common courtesy.

How often it is that doors are slammed in girls' faces by Springer gentlemen! How often people block the stairways and hallways as they chatter and gossip keeping other more conscientious students from getting to class on time! How often it is that students chatter incessantly despite their teachers' pleas for silence after the bell has rung.

Wouldn't it be nice (or miraculous) if just once a "gentleman" who had slammed a door in a girl's face would stop to help her pick up the books that she had dropped in the process.

Remember, Springers, a little bit of common courtesy goes a long way!

Rhonda Coakley '67

Goal Is Important

Happiness is having a goal. There is a certain amount of security in knowing that one has a specific reason for existence.

There are probably as many different ambitions as there are ambitious people. On the high school level, goals may vary from a desire to enter a specific college to a desire to be signed by a professional baseball team.

The differences in individuals' ambitions have little relevancy, however. The point is that all people must have something to aim for, if they are to progress.

Naturally, it is easy to spout high-flying ideals. Unfortunately, shining ideals often tarnish with the passage of time. Springers, do not let passing time quell your ambitions. Set high goals and reach until you achieve them.

Band Takes Trip To New York; Springers Audition for T.V.

New York isn't the same since Barrucas were there!

Early Oct. 12, the Barrucas headed up to New York for their 3:00 p.m. audition for the Ted Mack Amateur Hour.

Wearing their green coats, white pants and black boots they sang a medley of songs consisting of soul, American Rock and Roll, folk rock and English music. This variety was to show the studio their great diversity.

Thursday, October 13 was a day, said Sam Shaw, in which they went to night clubs and Greenwich Village to see if they could get any quick jobs.

The Barrucas got this audition through a cousin of Butch Earnheart's in New Jersey who wrote to CBS Amateur Hour, describing the group.

It is now to be decided whether or not the boys will go back and tape the portion they will do on the show. They hope to find out the decision within a month.

Their first record "I CAN'T BELIEVE" was no. 4. on the WGOC listeners poll and after having only 1000 of their records published, they sold 700 of them within 5 days.

All we can do now is keep our fingers crossed hoping that this fabulous group will soon appear with that great sponsor Geritol.

Protests Are Expressed by HSHS Students

Editors' Note:

The following letters have been written to the Fling from students who find many of the situations at Springerville disgusting.

Dear Editors:

As a Springer student and an American citizen, I was extremely disturbed by the conduct during the National Anthem on the September 30 game. Talking and roaming around during the National Anthem is child's play. Do you consider yourself a child? Of course not!!! So let's be proud to be an American citizen and a Springer by respecting the National Anthem and what it stands for.

Frances Morrison '67

Dear Editors:

The conduct at Friday night's game was unbelievable. We have the nerve to call ourselves Springers and to say that our school spirit is great. We may have this unforgettable spirit but it seems to me that a part of it would be to act in a reverent manner during the playing of the National Anthem. The flag that you look up to is a symbol of the freedom our country possesses. If we can't act in a more mature manner during this short period of time then why should we be allowed to live under the flag?

Carolyn Hood '67

Dear Editors:

I'm sure almost everyone feels the same way I do concerning the smoking area. Everyday many boys stand outside along the sidewalk in the designated area. But most of the time they are not along-side the sidewalk but standing right on it, in the middle and blocking traffic too. Any students walking by have to find space to squeeze in between-and-around, and many times off the sidewalk. I think that these boys, better known as Springers, should be more courteous, and realize that they have a privilege to smoke at school, and should not misuse it.

(I think this has always been a problem. Is there any solution?)

Springers Are Confused By Strange Word

What does scintillation mean? This question was presented to a number of Springers who made an attempt to define it. These were their comments:

Jack Byrne: "A kind of science and it concerns distillation."

Ray Owens and Buddy Wright: "Has to do with installation."

Tommy Lapacka: "Something that is smelly."

Donald Martin: "It is concerned with elevation or 'upness'."

Charles Gates: "Act of committing a sin."

Judy Geer: "An Italian dish."

Lois Hrubik: "It could mean a pink elephant for all I know."

Ricky Ludwig: "A common odor given off by a certain animal."

Richard Boltz: "Part of an incinerator that keeps the fire in."

John Fraysee: "Good heavens! I can't even pronounce it."

Ronnie Woody: "Concerned with saints."

Bonnie Hardiman: "A secret play in football."

Jesse Hart: "A word expressing the scientific hypothesis of an experimental factor."

Donnie Goddard: "Can you distill it and drink it?"

Susan Howell: "A biology term."

Eddie Patterson: "I reckon it goes with ventilation."

Gina Gardner: "A new type of boy."

Webster thinks differently. He defines scintillation as 1) an act of sparkling, 2) a spark or flash, 3) a brilliant display of it.

Is this an accurate test of Springer intelligence? Let's hope not!

Mr. Blackwell smiles pleasantly as he lectures to his English class.

New Teacher Digs Jazz

Mr. William Blackwell, an English and Speech teacher, was born in Richmond and attended George Wythe High School. He attended the University of Richmond, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English.

Not only new as a faculty member but also new as a member of the teaching profession, Mr. Blackwell found the Springer staff impressive. With a laugh he stated that he even enjoys three of his classes.

When asked why he had come to H.S., he readily answered that he wanted to teach on the high school level and Highland Springs was his first offer.

Mr. Blackwell feels that one of his high school teachers had a great influence on his decision to teach. Having always enjoyed literature and language, he felt that he would be happiest working with these subjects.

Although our pep rallies in his opinion are much more energetic and "peppier" than those of his alma mater, he observed that the students lack these virtues in the classroom. "Today students lack imagination and state no opinions; moreover, they don't seem to be up on current events."

Collecting old jazz records and classics is among Mr. Blackwell's hobbies, Bessie Smith being one of his favorites. Foreign films also rank high on his list, and Peter Sellers is his "hero."

Mr. Blackwell's future plans include a trip to New York over the Thanksgiving holiday and one to Boston during Christmas vacation.

He's still undecided about graduate school, but will most likely work towards his Master's degree.

With a chuckle, Mr. Blackwell added, "Oh, I was called down the first day of school for running up the stairs."

Foreign Aid Is Topic

The purpose of the Debate Club is to improve speaking ability, to promote increased awareness of nation-wide problems, and to debate better than anyone else in the Capital District or even in the state. Members of the Debate Club do research work on the national debate topic, participate in discussion groups several times during the year, debate against other high schools in the area, and compete in the Capital District Debate Tournament. Last year the discussion groups included a state-wide meeting at the University of Virginia, at which Ted Dempster received a distinguished speaker award, in the fall and a Capital District meeting held at Cathedral Central High School last spring. We debated against New Kent and Hermitage, whom we beat in all three debates. Last year's Capital District tournament was held at Collegiate, where we made a good showing although we didn't win any awards. We are looking forward to an even better season this year.

Good debating requires good public speaking, the ability to build a sound argument and to make a point clearly and concisely, and the readiness to work. All of these except the last can be developed. The necessary research work is not easy, but the topics are interesting and discussion is stimulating. I feel that the rewards of debating are indeed great. The national debate topic for this year is: "What should be the foreign aid policy of the United States?" This is certainly a timely and controversial subject.

The Debate Club needs more members. We invite and urge all of you to join. Listen for the announcements of our meetings over the public address system. Remember the Debate Club represents your school. We need your support.

Springers Take on Panthers Tonight

Potential Is Shown as JV Goes Strong

Well do the Warriors know what Highland Springs means. On September 21st the J.V. met the Warriors on their hunting ground and returned with a 13-0 victory as proof that they've got what it takes for victory.

Both touchdowns were scored by Kenny Roberts. The extra point was made by Mike Mays on a pass from Roberts.

J.V. Meets Tucker

Both Kenny Byrne and Jimmy Stanley show great promise. Coach Lammay commented, "The team has a very good defense and spirit." He also was very optimistic about upcoming games.

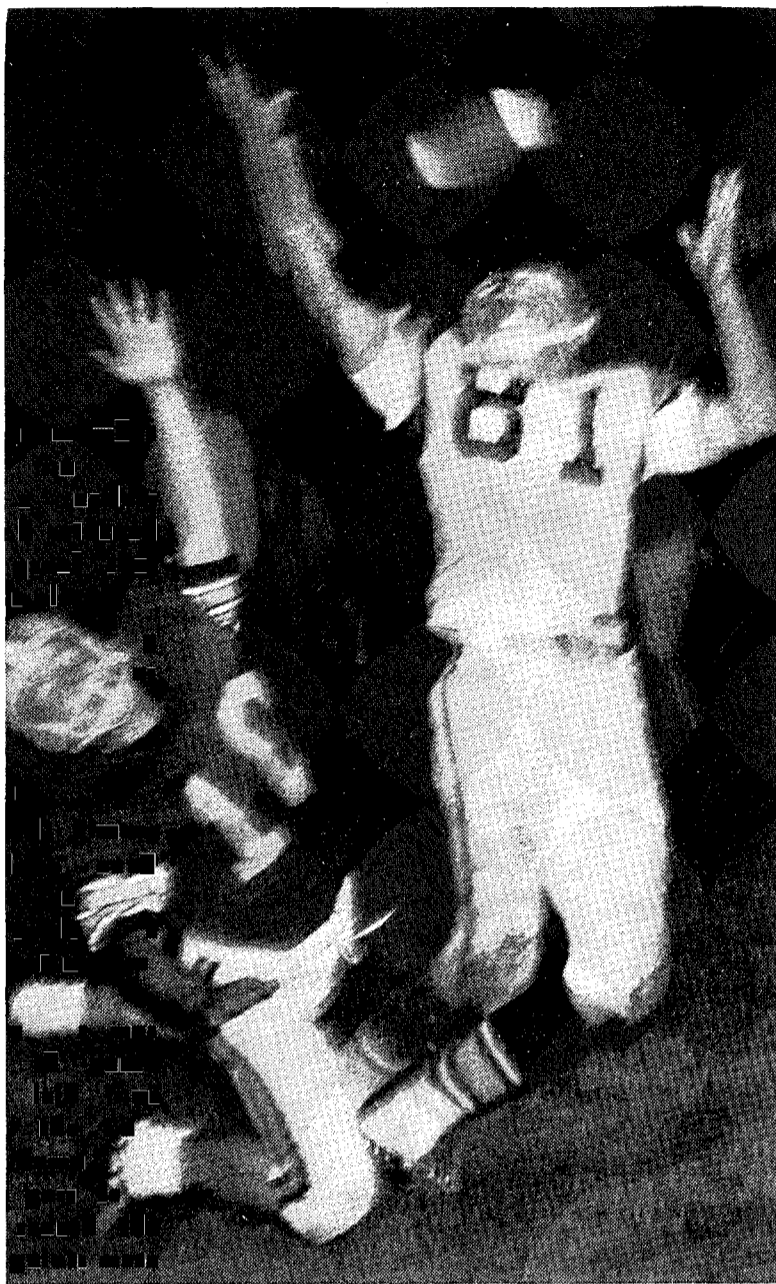

His expectations held up as was shown in the October 5th game against Tucker at Bailey Field. Our J.V. won the game with the final score at 9-0. The touchdown was scored by Wally Fox. A pass from Roberts to Bill Donahoe scored the extra point. The two extra points were scored when Roberts tackled the end and got a safety.

Five Won

The J.V. has played and won three games so far. In all three games, the opponents have not scored a single point. Jimmy Stanley, who recovered a fumble and saved the TD, Fox, Byrne, Sorrel, and Walton put up a very fine defense, one which was far superior to all expectations.

Other games for the J.V. were against: Thomas Jefferson on the twelfth, and John Marshall on the twentieth. The Springer J.V. squad will contend with Douglas Freeman here on the twenty-seventh at 4 p.m.

Come out and support your team!

Terry Suttles vainly tries to snag a pass in end zone.

Offense Exhibits Improvement; H.S. Varsity Defeats Bull Dogs

by Charles O'Connor and Bill Franklin

In a homecoming game highlighted by pass interceptions and fine defensive plays, the Springer eleven fought to a hard earned seven to seven tie with the Varina Blue Devils, an old rival.

After a scoreless first half, the Springers took the second half kick-off, but were unable to score and had to punt. A fine punt by Steven Gates, who punted 5 times for a 37 yard average left Varina deep in their own territory. But then Varina work-horse Russell Hodges ran 91 yards on a broken play for the game's first score. The extra point kick was good and Varina led seven to nothing.

The Springer offense, which was unable to move in the third quarter, started a drive in the last quarter which led to its only score. This drive was sparked by the passing and running of Dennis Newcomb and the running of Ben Riggen and Wayne Warren. Newcomb scored the touchdown on a two yard run and Nicky Geer kicked the extra point that tied the game.

In the closing moments of the game, Varina moved the ball to the Springers 15 yard line; but a 15 yard penalty kept the Blue Devils from scoring.

The Springers were led on defense by Lewis Brooks, Ken Coffman, Eddie Parker, James Eacho, and Dennis Newcomb. The Highland Springs defense yielded 8 first downs and only 244 total yards.

The leading ground gainers for Highland Springs were Ben Riggen, who gained 56 yards in eleven carries, and Wayne Warren, who gained 51 yards in 12 carries. The Springers completed one pass for 25 yards, but had three intercepted.

The Springers carried a 1-2-1 record into the George Wythe game, hoping to emerge 2-2-1. This was the first time the Spiders had played the Bulldogs and they showed good form against them. Both the teams had won their opening game but then had had trouble getting started in the next few. The Springers showed a very tough defense by blanking the Bulldogs 14 to 0. The Springer defense has given up only 20 points since the Lane game in which they gave up 34.

The Springers also showed a much improved offense led by David Atkinson, Ben Riggen and Roland Breaux. Riggen raced 60 yards on the second play from scrimmage in the first period.

In the 3rd period, David Atkinson drove 23 yards for another Springer score. Nicky Geer converged after both touchdowns for the extra point which made the score 14 to 0. Roland Breaux, starting in his first game since his shoulder injury, played brilliant football mixing his plays well and simply confusing the Wythe defense.

The offense and defense jerseys were awarded to Roland Breaux, David Atkinson, Dennis Story and Kenny Coffman, respectively.

Player of Month Featured

Action Is Specialty of Riggen; Sophomore Leads Springer Offense

by Jimmy Whitlow

One of the brighter spots on the Springer team this year has been the running of sophomore halfback Ben Riggen.

Ben's speed has been one of the main factors in the Springers' offensive attack. Although Ben stands only 5'7" and weighs only 140 pounds, he has repeatedly put nothing but wide open spaces between him and the defensive secondary. He has won the Best Offense jersey in every game this season except for the George Wythe game, in which he sustained an injury.

In the first six games this season, Ben has carried the ball 42 times for a total of 306 yards and an average of more than 7 yards per carry. He also had a kick-off return of 87 yards for a touchdown against Henrico. Ben as of the Henrico game has scored 24 points against our opposition.

Coach Hill feels that Ben is the fastest man ever to play football here at Highland Springs and he has the potential to become a real star. His fastest time in the hundred is 10.2 and Coach Hill thinks Ben has a good chance for making the All-Metro team.

Ben Riggen carries the ball for needed yardage.

Pep Week Ends

The Hermitage game tonight at Parker Field climaxes a week of spirited preparation.

The Springer population has displayed its support for the Varsity squad during morning pep rallies.

Last night Highland Springs students rallied in the parking lot for a bon fire which is becoming a tradition for the annual pep week.

At the game tonight it would be wise for students not only to exhibit their spirit but also their good sportsmanship. Individual yelling is fine, but remember that the cheerleaders are there to lead your yelling not to be out yelled.

S.C.A. Delegates Meet at Henrico; AFS Will Be Topic of Discussion

The District S.C.A. Convention will be held this year at Henrico High School on October 29th. Representatives will include the four S.C.A. officers, Lynn Stitzer, Gale Noel, Judy Nauman, and Joe Powell, in addition to Rhonda Coakley, Candy Gorham, and other Springers. They will be accompanied by Mr. H. W. Gibson.

On Saturday afternoon Highland Springs will lead a discussion on the A.F.S. program with Lynn Stitzer leading this group. Rhonda and Candy will tell other area schools about how to acquire an exchange student, and keep the student interested and happy. All their information will be based on past experiences at Highland Springs.

They will also tell how Highland Springs has managed to raise funds for exchange students. This has been achieved by club donations, dances, student donations, Bermuda Day, and other student activities.

The S.C.A. is hoping to gain a lot of information from the workshop this year.

Last year at Freeman the S.C.A. learned about Bermuda Day which change ideas, hence broadening the raised over $150.00 for the A.F.S. scope of the S.C.A. program.

Judy Nauman will record all the Schools from all over the Rich-proceedings for the state S.C.A. files.
